THE WALL

Mario Trimarchi

April 7 – May 3, 2025

Opening: Monday, April 7, at 6 PM

As part of the twelfth edition of 5VIE Design Week and within the Fuori Salone 2025, Paula Seegy Gallery will host "THE WALL", a collection of interwoven metal objects, natural fibers, and mirrored glass, presented by Mario Trimarchi.

THE WALL

Objects turn into things, asserting their aesthetic dominance within our homes. Tired of being mistreated, piled up, moved around, and used inconsistently—recklessly even—they drift toward the margins. They abandon the center of the room, the middle of tables and coffee tables, breaking free from their banal identity as mere decorative items, retreating to the walls. From various heights, they breathe more freely and finally look at us: amused by our ceaseless rushing, our arguments, our loves, our fleeting and profound thoughts. And every now and then, they sigh. Leaning against the wall, they silently remind us that we will pass—while they will remain.

5Vie Day: April 9 from 12:00 to 9:00 PM

The exhibition will be open to visitors from April 7 to May 3, 2025

Mario Trimarchi, designer and architect, he believes in the project as a tool to spread poetry in the world of things.

Director of the Domus Academy Master in Design, he was part of the Olivetti Design Studio. He founded FRAGILE, the well-known Italian studio of brand design, designing corporate identity systems for international banks, companies and institutions. In 2016 he won the Compasso d'Oro with the Ossidiana coffee maker for Alessi. The creativity of Mario Trimarchi ranges from designing brands, products and artworks. He draws day and night.
